

REO & Vacant Properties

Strategies for Neighborhood Stabilization

Topics

- REO markets and how they operate
- Community impacts of foreclosed and vacant properties
- Keeping properties occupied despite delinquencies
- Stabilizing neighborhoods after foreclosures

Benefits

- Receive a new volume exploring regional differences and perspectives of those involved in REO disposition including sellers, buyers, nonprofits, and municipalities
- Hear key findings from a Federal Reserve study on local uses of Neighborhood Stabilization Program (NSP) funds

Registration

- There is no charge for this event, but space is limited.
- To register, please e-mail DCCA-events@frb.gov. Include your full first and last name, organization, and phone number. We will send you a link to the registration website.*
- The summit will be held at the Federal Reserve Board in Washington, D.C.

* Privacy Act

The information you provide will be used to assist us in prescreening you to ensure the security of the Board's premises and personnel. In order to do this, we may disclose your information consistent with the routine uses listed in the Privacy Act Notice for BGFRS-32, including to appropriate federal, state, local, or foreign agencies where disclosure is reasonably necessary to determine whether you pose a security risk or where the security or confidentiality of your information has been compromised. We are authorized to collect your information by 12 U.S.C §§ 243 and 248, and Executive Order 9397. In accordance with Executive Order 9397, we collect your Social Security Number so that we can keep accurate records, because other people may have the same name and birth date. In addition, we use your Social Security Number when we make requests for information about you from law enforcement and other regulatory agency databases. Furnishing the information requested is voluntary; however, your failure to provide any of the information requested may result in disapproval of your request for access to the Federal Reserve Board's premises. You may be subject to a fine or imprisonment under 18 U.S.C § 1001 for any false statements you make on this form.

Sponsored by the Federal Reserve Board of Governors and the Federal Reserve Banks of Boston and Cleveland