

SAVE THE DATE

Thursday, September 16, 2010

Interagency Community Development Conference

Community Banks and the Outlook for Residential and Small Business Lending

Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland

1455 E. 6th St.

Cleveland, OH 44114

8AM-4PM

Join your fellow community bankers in a daylong discussion of the outlook for residential and small business lending and the business opportunities afforded by community development credit enhancements. We'll begin with an open-format CRA Q&A with senior compliance examiners followed by a presentation on the national housing market by a senior Freddie Mac economist. Lunch will feature a keynote on small business lending. The afternoon will offer simultaneous breakouts on community development credit enhancements for residential and small business lending followed by a best practices panel of bankers discussing integrated approaches to community development business opportunities.

Registration information to come...