

ANNUAL REPORT

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK of CLEVELAND

The Federal Reserve System is responsible for formulating and implementing U.S. monetary policy. It also supervises banks and bank holding companies and provides financial services to depository institutions and the federal government.

The Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland is one of 12 regional Reserve Banks in the United States that, together with the Board of Governors in Washington DC, comprise the Federal Reserve System.

The Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland, including its branch offices in Cincinnati and Pittsburgh, serves the Fourth Federal Reserve District (Ohio, western Pennsylvania, the northern panhandle of West Virginia, and eastern Kentucky).

It is the policy of the Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland to provide equal employment opportunity for all employees and applicants without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, or disability.

Federal Reserve Banks each have a main office board of nine directors. Directors supervise the Bank's budget and operations, make recommendations on the discount rate on primary credit and, with the Board of Governors' approval, appoint the Bank's president and first vice president.

In addition, directors provide the Federal Reserve System with a wealth of information on economic conditions. This information is used by the Federal Open Market Committee and the Board of Governors in reaching decisions about monetary policy.

Class A directors are elected by and represent Fourth District member banks. Class B directors are also elected by Fourth District member banks and represent diverse industries within the District. Class C directors are selected by the Board of Governors and also represent the wide range of businesses and industries in the Fourth District. Two Class C directors are designated as chairman and deputy chairman of the board.

The Cincinnati and Pittsburgh branch offices each have a board of seven directors who are appointed by the Board of Governors and the Board of Directors of the Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland.

Terms for all directors are generally limited to two three-year terms to ensure that the individuals who serve the Federal Reserve System represent a diversity of backgrounds and experience.
