Extension:

Depending on the job you choose to start, you can extend the OME career path beyond three jobs. To do this, start a new path and choose the last career from your previous path as your “current occupation”. Finish the path by selecting 2 more jobs to see how your career can grow. See the example below:

Assessment/Follow-up discussion questions:

Did this activity help you identify new jobs you had not previously thought of?

What skills were most requested between the three jobs you were most interested in?
Are there any similar skills between the jobs in your OME career path?

What are some soft skills that you are currently developing (in school or at work)?
Can you think of any tasks that you could take on which will support new skill development?
