

Darrielle Snipes

Reporter and Producer | ideastream

Darrielle Snipes is a reporter and producer at ideastream, home to Cleveland's Public Broadcasting Service and National Public Radio stations. Ms. Snipes is an award-winning journalist who, during her 20-plus-year career, worked in Oklahoma City, Baltimore, Detroit, and Indianapolis before coming to Cleveland in 2010. While at ideastream, Ms. Snipes has covered several social issues in reports about human trafficking in Northeast Ohio, the first 2,000 days of a child's life, bail reform, and food deserts in both urban and rural communities.