

Omar Elhagmusa
Senior Lending Officer
IFF

Omar started his banking career in 2011 after a career in government and nonprofit consulting. He is a detail-oriented lending professional with experience capitalizing nonprofits in amounts as low as $10,000 to $6.5 million. He enjoys developing and implementing programs that ensure the long-term sustainability of nonprofits and social enterprises. As the senior lender for IFF in Ohio, his role is to leverage IFF's resources to support targeted community-led initiatives.
