

Christopher Nance
Vice President of Construction and Inclusive Talent Initiatives
Greater Cleveland Partnership

Christopher B. Nance, a native Clevelander, has served in the private, non-profit, and public sectors in Ohio, Connecticut, and New York. Nance served as Deputy District Director for Congresswoman Stephanie Tubbs Jones and Assistant Secretary of State to Ohio's Secretary of State. Currently, Chris serves as Vice President Construction & Inclusive Talent Initiatives at Greater Cleveland Partnership, which includes efforts to connect underrepresented individuals across multiple sectors to jobs and business opportunities. Nance earned a bachelor's degree from Boston College and a Master's in Business Administration from Cleveland State University.