Economic Scholars Program

This hybrid event hosted by the Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland allows undergraduate students to share their original research, understand what it's like to participate in an economic research conference, network with peers, and discover internship and employment openings with the Federal Reserve.

Training

Optional training session to assist with submitting a conference-ready proposal on January 27.

All Other Applications and Proposals Due

Paper Proposals for presenters and applications for Discussants and Session Chairs are due on March 12.
Students whose proposals are accepted will be notified on March 27.

2025 Economic Scholars Program

All day event April 21, 2025

1/27

2/21

3/12

3/31

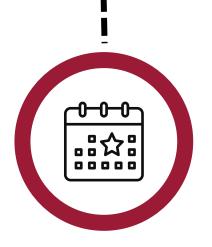

Applications Open

Applications open January 6 for Peer Review Board Members, Paper Session Presenters, Discussants, and Session Chairs.

Peer Review Board Applications Due

Applications for the Peer Review Board are due on February 21. Acceptances will be communicated by February 28. All students accepted to participate must attend mandatory training on March 10 and March 19.

Training and Acceptance

Discussants and Session Chairs will be notified of acceptance on March 31.

Presenters will attend training on April 3.

Discussants and Session Chairs will attend training on April 8.

