Economic Scholars Program

This hybrid global event hosted by the Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland allows undergraduate students to share their original research, understand what it's like to participate in an economic research conference, network with peers, and discover internship and employment openings with the Federal Reserve.

Training

Optional training session to assist with submitting a conference-ready proposal on January 26.

All Other Applications and Proposals Due

Research proposals for Presenters and applications for Discussants and Session Chairs are due on March 11.

Students whose proposals are accepted will be notified on March 26.

2026 Economic Scholars Program

All day event April 17, 2026

1/5

1/26

2/20

3/11

3/30

Applications Open

Applications open January 5 for Peer Review Board Members, Paper Session Presenters, Discussants, and Session Chairs.

Peer Review Board Applications Due

Applications for the Peer Review Board are due on February 20. Acceptances will be communicated by February 27. All students accepted to participate must attend mandatory training March 9 & 18.

Training and Acceptance

Discussants and Session Chairs will be notified of acceptance on March 30.

Presenters will attend training on April 1.

Training will be held for Discussants on April 7 and Session Chairs on April 8.

