

Business Advisory Councils

As of December 31, 2012

Business Advisory Council members are a diverse group of Fourth District businesspeople who advise the president and senior officers on current business conditions.

Each council—in Cincinnati, Cleveland, Columbus, Dayton, Erie, Lexington, Pittsburgh, and Wheeling—meets with senior Bank leaders at least twice yearly. These meetings provide anecdotal information that is useful in the consideration of monetary policy direction and economic research activities.

Community Depository Institutions Advisory Council

As of December 31, 2012

The Community Depository Institutions Advisory Council is composed of representatives from commercial banks, thrift institutions, and credit unions in the Fourth Federal Reserve District.

Council members meet with the Bank president and senior officers at least twice yearly to provide information and insight from the perspective of community depository institutions. These meetings provide anecdotal information that is useful in the formulation of supervisory and monetary policy direction.

The chair of each District Bank's council also has the responsibility of reporting twice yearly to the Federal Reserve Board of Governors in Washington, DC.
