

THE CLEVELAND FED BY THE NUMBERS

FOR THE YEAR 2013

14	consecutive years the Cleveland Fed has been a NorthCoast 99 winner, which honors great workplaces for top talent in Northeast Ohio
3	years recognized by Commission on Economic Inclusion as Best-in-Class for supplier diversity

1	time the Cincinnati Branch hosted then-Chairman Ben Bernanke in 2013
301	address of the new Pittsburgh Branch at One Oxford Centre on Grant Street

218,000,000	transactions collected by the Debit Gateway on behalf of the US Treasury
561,000,000,000	dollars processed through the Debit Gateway
115,000,000,000	revenue collected through Pay.gov on behalf of the US Treasury
59,000	customer calls fielded by Pay.gov reps

155	exams conducted at financial institutions
------------	---

21	papers either published or accepted in peer-reviewed journals
-----------	---

259,937,000	currency notes shredded
5,986,552,000	currency notes exchanged

25,992	visitors screened for safety by Cleveland Fed officers
7,280	visits from armored courier vehicles

951

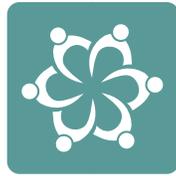

Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland employees

Innovation

Expertise

Influence

Reach

25 percent new minority hires

178 percent improvement in pool of qualified, diverse vendors

3,107 subscribers to community development e-updates

35 meetings with regional workforce development stakeholders to understand employment challenges

530 teachers reached through Cleveland Fed programs

532,429 copies of Great Minds Think: A Kid's Guide to Money distributed since publication in 2007

47 Fourth District cities represented in the high school writing contest on the future of money

9,276 participants in onsite Cleveland Fed education programs

2,796 students who engaged in Cleveland Fed programs

170 trees saved by the 10 tons of paper recycled by the Cleveland Fed

65 tons of construction waste recycled

291,799 dollar amount our 951 employees pledged to United Way

25,700 Twitter followers

157 public speeches given

700 substantive media stories mentioning the Cleveland Fed

1

Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland