

Table of Contents

Introduction

- 4 Letter from Presidents Rosengren and Pinalto and Governor Duke
- 5 About the MORE Initiative
- 6 Foreword

Section I: Research and Analysis

The Scope and Nature of the REO Challenge

- 13 REO Properties, Housing Markets, and the Shadow Inventory by Alan Mallach, Brookings Institution
- 23 Shuttered Subdivisions: REOs and the Challenges of Neighborhood Stabilization in Suburban Cities by Carolina K. Reid, Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco
- 33 Holding or Folding? Foreclosed Property Durations and Sales during the Mortgage Crisis by Dan Immergluck, Georgia Institute of Technology
- 47 REO and Beyond: The Aftermath of the Foreclosure Crisis in Cuyahoga County, Ohio by Claudia Coulton, Michael Schramm, and April Hirsh, Case Western Reserve University
- 55 Examining REO Sales and Price Discounts in Massachusetts by Kai-yan Lee, Federal Reserve Bank of Boston
- 65 Maximizing the Impact of Federal NSP Investments through the Strategic Use of Local Market Data by Ira Goldstein, The Reinvestment Fund
- 77 Servicing REO Properties: The Servicer's Role and Incentives
by Stergios Theologides, CoreLogic

Section II: Solutions

Strategies for Dealing with REO and Vacant Properties

- 89 Acquiring Property for Neighborhood Stabilization: Lessons Learned from the Front Lines by Craig Nickerson, National Community Stabilization Trust
- 95 REO Disposition and Neighborhood Stabilization: A Servicer's View by Jay N. Ryan Jr., Fannie Mae
- 101 Acquiring Privately Held REO Properties with Public Funds: The Case of the Neighborhood Stabilization Program
by Harriet Newburger, Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia
- 107 Nonprofit Strategies for Returning REO Properties to Effective Use by Daniel Fleischman

-
- 115 Purchasing Properties from REO and Reselling to Existing Occupants: Lessons from the Field on Keeping People in Place
by Elyse D. Cherry, Boston Community Capital, and Patricia Hanratty, Aura Mortgage Advisors
- 123 The Community Asset Preservation Corporation: A New Approach to Community Revitalization by Harold Simon, National Housing Institute
- 131 Embracing Renting to Accelerate Neighborhood Recovery
by Danilo Pelletiere, National Low Income Housing Coalition
- 141 Cleaning up after the Foreclosure Tsunami: Practices to Address REOs in Northeast Ohio
by Frank Ford, Neighborhood Progress, Inc.
- 145 How Modern Land Banking Can Be Used to Solve REO Acquisition Problems
by Thomas J. Fitzpatrick IV, Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland
- 151 The Community Reinvestment Act and NSP: A Banker's Perspective
by Mike Griffin, KeyBank

Project Team

Project Directors and Content Editors

Prabal Chakrabarti, Federal Reserve Bank of Boston
Matthew Lambert, Federal Reserve Board
Mary Helen Petrus, Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland

Managing Editor

Anne O'Shaughnessy, Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland

Content Editor

Lisa Nelson, Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland

Designer

Julie Weinstein, Federal Reserve Bank of Boston

Acknowledgments

The project team would like to acknowledge the following individuals, whose expertise, insights, and support were critical to the completion of this report: Heidi Furse and Richard Walker of the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston; Ruth Clevenger, Amy Koehnen, and Michele Lachman of the Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland; and Joseph Firschein and Theresa Stark of the Federal Reserve Board. The team would also like to thank Tammy Edwards, Scott Turner, and Alicia Williams of the Federal Reserve's Mortgage Outreach and Research Efforts Committee.