Instructions for Fin Lit Bingo

- Requires one player and a bingo caller.
- Player(s) will select one of the ten bingo boards to play.
  Teachers you can copy the Bingo worksheets to your Google Classroom and assign students to different bingo boards.
- The bingo caller will access the Fin Lit Vocab Bingo answer key.
- Once the player(s) and bingo caller have their materials the game can get started.
- The Bingo Caller will read aloud the different vocab definitions for students to identify on their boards. If the student can locate the matching word on their board, they can use the dots on the side of the board to mark the space.
A form of payment that is like a personal loan; you have to pay a balance on it the end of every month.
A place to put money for safekeeping.
The bank holds your money and you take it out when you need it.
Paper currency or coins.
Anything widely accepted in exchange for goods and services.
The amount of money that remains after a business pays the costs of producing a good or service.
A promise of payment at a future time for goods and services that are purchased now.
The amount of money you have in your bank account.
A card that subtracts money from your checking account.
A fee paid for the use of money.
Money that is paid out of your checking account or savings account for goods and services that are purchased now.
Things that are necessary to survive.
Money that you spend.
The amount of money that you owe.
To receive money in exchange for work.
Someone who takes the risk, or chance of loss, in starting a business.
Money that you earn or receive.
A fee paid for the use of money.
To put money aside for later use.
Things that are nice to have but aren’t necessary to survive.
Putting money into a bank account.
An asset purchased with the hope that it will gain value and provide a financial return.
What happens as a result of your choice—good or bad.
A person who purchases goods and services for personal use.
A paper form of payment that is used to transfer money from your checking account to a person or company.
One of several options that you pick.
What you give up when you make a choice.
Forms of payment on your phone that are linked to a checking or credit card account.
What you gain when you make a choice.
A plan that balances income with expenses.